St. James's, November 21.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted, by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portriff, Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tulsk, in the County of Roſcommon, within the ſaid Borough aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portriff, Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of this your ancient and loyal Borough of Tulsk, do in the humbleſt Manner beg Leave to joyn with your Majeſty in our unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Majeſty's Royal Father, who had ſo highly endeared himſelf to theſe Nations by the moſt prudent and equal Government that hath been known in any Age.

It is however Matter of the greateſt Conſolation to us under this Affliction, to ſee the manifold Felicities derived by him upon theſe Kingdoms, ſo effectually ſecured to us after his Death, by your Majeſty's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; upon which Occaſion we beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty in the ſincereſt and moſt hearty Manner, and humbly to return our Thanks for the gracious Declaration you have been pleaſed to make of your Affection for the eſtabliſhed Religion, Laws and Conſtitution of theſe Realms.

As the Enjoyment of all our Religious and Civil Rights has an immediate and neceſſary Dependence upon your Majeſty and the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Family; ſo we cannot but reflect with the higheſt Satisfaction on our own Happineſs in this Particular, while we not only ſee your Majeſty ſo happily ſettled in the peaceable Enjoyment of your Crown, but have likewiſe the additional Bleſſing of a Queen, the moſt gracious and amiable that ever adorned the Britiſh Throne; who hath already bleſs'd your Majeſty and your People with a numerous and hopeful Iſſue, and may, as we truſt in God, ſtill multiply thoſe Bleſſing upon us, to remain as ſo many ſacred Pledges to Poſterity for the laſting Glory and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms. Nor can we omit this Opportunity of remembring in the moſt grateful Manner, that further Increaſe of our Happineſs, ariſing from the Experience we have already had of your Majeſty's moſt extenſive Wiſdom and Goodneſs; which gives us the fulleſt Aſſurance, that the Welfare and Proſperity of all your loyal Subjects will be the conſtant Rule and Meaſure of your Government. In Return whereof, we do with all Humility aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall upon every Occaſion ſtand by and ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Power, your Majeſty's moſt rightful and undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; earneſtly beſeeching God, that the ſame may flouriſh long on your Majeſty's Head, for the Happineſs of your People, and the Advancement of our moſt holy Religion.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our common Seal, this 29th Day of September, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Scarborough, in Common-Council aſſembled, in Behalf of themſelves, and the reſt of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Strickland, one of their Repreſentatives in the enſuing Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Eſſex Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to join in the joyful and hearty Congratulations of your People, upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

The Death of the late King your Royal Father affected us with a more than ordinary Sorrow; for we always conſider'd him as a wiſe, juſt, beneficent and great Prince; as an affectionate Father of his People; as the faithful Guardian of the Laws and Liberties, and intirely and uniformly devoted to the Good of his Country: But we conceive it our Duty to ſubmit to the Will of Heaven, and inſtead of accuſing its Juſtice by our unavailable Grief, to adore its Goodneſs which has ſupplied that Loſs to us, in giving us a Succeſſour of your Majeſty's eminent Virtues and renown'd Atchievements. Who ſo proper to be the Patron of our Liberties, to be the Defender of our Faith, as He who has ſo gallantly, ſo ſucceſsfully, and with ſo much Hazard to his Perſon, appear'd in Defence of both in the Criſis of their greateſt Danger.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration is a further Evidence of your being determined to maintain our civil and religious Rights under all their proper and legal Circumſcriptions, and gives us the trueſt Foundation of Joy and Contentment. We look upon it as a juſt and natural Sequel of what we had all Reaſon to promiſe ourſelves from your Majeſty's paſt Conduct.

We beg Leave to conclude with wiſhing your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us; a Reign ſurrounded and adorned with all ſorts of Felicities; that your Majeſty may be long happy in the Enjoyment of the very beſt of Queens, and beſt of Women; a Queen who ſtands diſtinguiſhed, and comes recommended beyond the reſt of her Sex, more by the Advantage of her perſonal Merits, than by the Luſtre of the Diadem ſhe graces. We cannot but reverence and acknowledge the Juſtice of Almighty God, who in the Wiſdom of His Providence has made that very Piety to which ſhe was reſolved to ſacrifice a Crown, the very Means of procuring her one. We wiſh that both your Majeſties and all the Royal Iſſue may be long happy in the Enjoyment of the moſt perfect Health; that your Majeſty may be happy in the Conſequences of your Adminiſtration, in the flouriſhing Condition of this Community, and in every other Circumſtance which may render your Reign glorious and exemplary to all future Ages. We aſſure your Majeſty, we ſhall ever remain with the moſt hearty Devotion, with a moſt faithful and inviolable Attachment to your moſt ſacred Majeſty's Perſon and Government,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Signed in the Name, Preſence, and by the Direction and Appointment of the Common-Council, by the Bailiffs, and given under the common Seal of the ſaid Borough.

The following humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, Heretors, and others of the Shire of Clackmannan, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

OThers may with greater Eloquence, but none can with more dutiful and ſtedfaſt Affection than we, have the Honour to aſſure your Majeſty of unalterable Loyalty to your ſacred Perſon, Proteſtant Family and Government, in Oppoſition to the abjured Popiſh Pretender, and all your other Enemies ſecret or declared.

We rejoyce at the Proſpect of your Majeſty's Reign, ſo auſpiciouſly begun. When we have a King of ſo great and Royal Virtues at the Head of ſo excellent a Conſtitution as that of Britain, every thing good and great is to be expected.

We enjoyed many Bleſſings under our late moſt excellent King your Majeſty's Royal Father, whoſe Death filled us with Grief, and muſt have ſunk us in Sorrow, and our Country in Confuſion and Trouble, had not there been ſuch a Succeſſour as your Majeſty to ſway the Scepter, as your Royal Father did, for the Happineſs of your People.

Your Majeſty having the only rightful Title to reign over us, and the Settlement of the Crown in your Royal Proteſtant Family being the greateſt Security on Earth of the Church of Scotland, which we bleſs God is by Law eſtabliſhed, and of all our civil Rights and Liberties, our moſt ardent Wiſhes and fervent Prayers are engaged, That God, who hitherto has done ſo great Things for your Majeſty and your Dominions, may continue to pour down all His Bleſſings on you and on our moſt gracious Queen, on his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and on all your Royal Progeny and Family; and may our lateſt Poſterity be as happy under a Proteſtant King of your Royal Houſe, as we are under your own Government.
